AFRICA RIKAI PROJECT

Understand Africa. Please join us as a supporter or a partner.

Since 2005, Africa Rikai Project has been supporting in education and the women of Karayu, a pastoral community in Ethiopia through a partnership with Gudina Tumusa Foundation (GTF), a local NGO. Africa Rikai Project provides young people in Ethiopia and Japan opportunities to acquire a global perspective.

Objective of “School for All”

Karayu children and Karayu community cope with difficulties, find solutions and become self reliant.

Cornerstones

- Self reliance
- Partnership with the local NGO
- Girls’ education
- Networking

Role of Africa Rikai Project

Africa Rikai Project links people to people and support to potential.

“Fostering future leaders”

Achievements up to now and future activities

Promotion of environmental education

The Nomura Environmental Education Centre was built as a place for children and community members to learn about environmental protection and livelihood improvement. Provision of necessary equipment and support for the management of the centre are being planned

“Environmental education starts from planting a tree”

Construction of 4 secondary classrooms was sponsored by the Japanese Government

Development of classrooms and educational materials

Classrooms were built with the support of the Japanese Government and the Nomura Family. Africa Rikai Project advised GTF on how to obtain the necessary funds.

Scholarship has been provided to five girls.
“We maximize the chances given to us”

Improving the quality of education

An essay contest sponsored by Africa Rikai Project was organized which led to increased for education. Africa Rikai Project also facilitated the dispatch of a mathematics teacher to GTF’s secondary school.

Japanese supporters visited the community.
“We have seen how our support is benefiting the community”

Promotion of girls’ education

Five girls between 14 and 20 years old have been receiving a scholarship through Africa Rikai Project. Girls’ education is essential to achieve equitable society.

Karayu’s first female student graduated college in 2007. Her graduation gave Karayu girls and women hope and confidence.

Partnership with a local NGO.
“Efficient support is possible through the local NGO who is conversant with the local situation”
